THIS CONTEMPT OF COURT CASE (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 20/12/2006, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

R. BASANT, J.

C.C (C) NO. 1472 OF 2006

Dated this the 20th day of December, 2006

JUDGMENT

The petitioner has come to this Court complaining that the learned Munsiff has committed contempt of court in not complying with the directions of this Court dated 16/3/2006 in W.P.(c) No.7852/06. When the contempt was received on file, the remarks of the learned Munsiff was called for. The remarks have been submitted to this Court through the District Judge. Having gone through the remarks offered by the learned Munsiff, I must express my unreserved condemnation of the attitude shown by the petitioner. The vital and relevant details have been suppressed from this Court in an attempt made by the petitioner to somehow initiate this contempt proceedings. Less said about the bona fides of the petitioner, the better. The learned counsel for the petitioner apologetically submits that he was not informed of the later W.P.(c) No.14942/06 filed in the matter by some other contestants in which stay was granted for some period of time. It is also brought to my notice that the learned

Munsiff had requested for and was granted time till 31/1/07 to comply with the order.

2. This contempt of court case is, in these circumstances, dismissed. Communicate this judgment to the learned Munsiff forthwith.
